ADDITIONAL ALLEGATIONS AS TO COUNTS ONE THROUGH TWELVE

14. The allegations contained in Counts One through Twelve are hereby realleged and incorporated as if fully set forth in this paragraph, and the additional allegations below are incorporated by reference into Counts One through Twelve.

15. Based on (a) acts and omissions committed, aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, procured, and willfully caused by the defendants, and (b) all reasonably foreseeable acts and omissions of others in furtherance of a criminal plan, scheme, endeavor, and enterprise undertaken by the defendants in concert with others; all of which occurred during the commission of the offense of conviction, in preparation for that offense, and in the course of attempting to avoid detection and responsibility for that offense, the following conduct occurred (U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3(a)(1)):

a. The offense involved at least 150 kilograms of cocaine (U.S.S.G. § 2D1.1(c)(1)).

16. The defendant JUAN CARLOS RAMIREZ-ABADIA, also known as "Chupeta," was an organizer and leader of criminal activity that involved five or more participants and was otherwise extensive (U.S.S.G. § 3B1.1(a)).

17. The defendant DIEGO VARONA, also known as "Chuqui" and "Oscar," was a manager and supervisor of criminal activity that involved five or more participants and was otherwise extensive (U.S.S.G. § 3B1.1(b)).

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATION AS TO COUNT ONE

18. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendants charged in Count One that, upon their conviction of such offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, which requires any person convicted of such offense to forfeit any property constituting, or derived from, proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, such offense, and any of their interest in, claims against, and property or contractual rights affording a source of control over, the continuing criminal enterprise.

19. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

(d) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), to seek forfeiture of any other property of such defendants up to the value of the forfeitable property described in this forfeiture allegation.

(Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p))

CRIMINAL FORFEITURE ALLEGATION AS TO COUNTS TWO THROUGH TWELVE

20. The United States hereby gives notice to the defendants charged in Counts Two through Twelve that, upon conviction of any such offense, the government will seek forfeiture in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853, which requires any person convicted of such offenses to forfeit any property constituting, or derived from, proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, and any property used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, such offenses.

21. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

(a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

(b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;

(c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

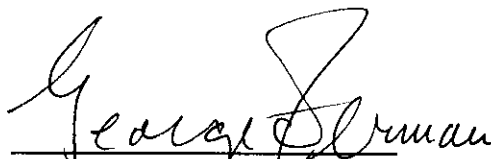

(d) has been substantially diminished in value; or

(e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), to seek forfeiture of any other property of such defendants up to the value of the forfeitable property described in this forfeiture allegation.
